Subject: Consumer Complaint regarding Stolen Gold Jewelry

Respected Sir/Madam,

I am writing to file a formal consumer complaint under the Consumer Protection Act, 2019.

Details of Purchase/Service:

- Date of Purchase/Service: 5 March 2026
- Invoice/Bill Number: Not applicable
- Amount Paid: Not applicable
- Seller/Service Provider: Not applicable

Nature of Complaint:

On 5 March 2026, at about 2:00 PM, I left my gold jewelry in the cupboard in my bedroom at my house in Kattur. When I returned to the room at around 4:30 PM, I found that the cupboard had been opened and my gold jewelry was missing. I suspect that someone in the house stole the gold during that time.

Correspondence Made:

No correspondence has been made as this is the initial complaint.

Relief Sought:

1. Compensation for the stolen gold jewelry
2. Compensation for mental agony and harassment: Rs. [Amount]
3. Litigation costs

I request your urgent intervention in this matter.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,
praveen raju

Enclosures:

1. Copy of police complaint (if filed)
2. Supporting documents (if any)
