

John, I've got all the information I need now. I'll help you draft a complaint letter to the Inspector of Police. I'll make sure to include all the details we've discussed, including the incident, the description of the thief, and the relief you're seeking.

Here's a draft of the complaint letter:

From: John

90th Street, Vadapandi

Phone: 1617389064

Date: Today's Date

To: Inspector of Police

Subject: Complaint of Stolen Airbuds

Dear Inspector,

I am writing to report an incident of theft that occurred at my residence on 90th Street, Vadapandi, on [current date] at around 5:00 o'clock in the morning. I was drinking tea in my house when I noticed that my airbuds were missing. I later realized that someone had broken into my house and stolen them.

The person who committed the theft was wearing a white shirt, black pants, and a helmet to conceal their face. I did not see their face, but I am providing as much detail as possible to help with the investigation.

I request that you take immediate action to investigate this incident and recover my stolen airbuds. I also request that you take severe action against the person who committed the theft, according to the law.

I am a law-abiding citizen and expect the police to take necessary actions to protect my property and ensure that justice is served.

Relief sought:

I seek the recovery of my stolen airbuds and severe action against the person who committed the theft, according to the law.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

John

Please review the letter and let me know if you need any changes.